

CIVIL RIGHTS LEAGUE.

Colored People in the Northwest Holding Meetings.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND'S SUPPORT

Of the Movement Gives It a Healthy Impetus—A Colored Orator Strikes Straight Out from the Shoulder. The Archbishop's Address.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 19.—The Civil Rights league took on a healthy impetus in the line of perpetuity of its organization by the meeting at Market hall last night. The proposition was given by a declaration of sympathy, influence and support by such men as Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul; Prof. D. Augustus Straker, of Detroit, and Rev. W. S. Vail, of St. Paul, before a large audience, composed of respectable citizens of the city, both white and black. It will be remembered that the organization began in St. Paul, and is expected to extend throughout the United States. The object is to secure to colored men of the South free and equal social and civil liberties in conjunction with the whites, and especially to test the validity of the "special act" in the South. The immediate occasion for the movement grew out of the case of Col. Sam Hardy who last summer went to Knoxville, Tenn., to attend the Afro-American league, and who was excluded from cars and other public places designated exclusively for the whites. The meeting last night was a large and enthusiastic one. The well known colored attorney, F. L. McGhee, presided, and W. A. Hazel filled the office of secretary. Among those having seats on the stage were Archbishop John Ireland, Rev. W. S. Vail, Josiah Fairchild, Gen. C. A. Andrews, Prof. D. Augustus Straker, of Detroit, who is urged for the appointment as a judge of the United States circuit court of appeals, and Sam Hardy, as well as other prominent white and colored gentlemen.

Archbishop Ireland, being announced as the first speaker, delivered an eloquent eulogy on the colored race, and presented strong reasons for according it an equal social and civil position. He declared that he feels it his duty to stand on a platform of equal rights for all men, and to call all men brothers, and to rise above race prejudice. It is prejudice unfounded and unreasonable that makes such meetings necessary. Men have persuaded themselves that because of the mere accident of color the negro is an inferior being. The conscience of the country has declared against slavery, but the old prejudice still remains, and attempts are still being made to push the colored people into a corner and keep the whole world for the white man. Christ had preached equal rights to all at a time when the whole of the Roman empire was in bondage, and His gospel had spread over the world and sounded the death knell of slavery. He appealed to his audience to make amends for the past history of this country in slavery times by extending full rights to the colored people.

Prof. D. Augustus Straker, of Detroit, was the next speaker. He is a man of fine presence, and has a graceful demeanor on the platform. He read from manuscript an address of considerably more than an hour in length. The subject matter was logically arranged and contained points forcible in application. There were several direct allusions to his political preferences, and he declared in favor of the protective policy and the administration of President Harrison. His address covered the salient points in the past and present conditions of the colored people, as well as their aspirations for the future. He said "we are supposed to be enjoying the same rights that are claimed by the whites, but this is not true in fact. The whites should hear the lamentations of the blacks." The separate car act was characterized as a degradation that will not be suffered. Incidentally he said that thirty years ago the colored people had neither money, preachers, lawyers, doctors nor professions. Now they have over $200,000,000 worth of property, 542 lawyers, 749 doctors, 1,619 mechanics, 1,481 merchants, 872 editors and hundreds of preachers. He declared that the treatment of the colored people in the South was as much anarchy as was anarchy in Chicago. He lamented that the force bill was defeated by the timidity of people in the North and intimidation by the South. The blacks, excepting the Indians, he declared have the best right to live in America. He claimed the time is coming when the blacks will be able to protect themselves. He characterized the separate car act as robbery and moral stigma. With God and right, and the aid of Cable, Tongree, Archbishop Ireland and others the blacks will destroy Southern prejudice or overthrow the republic. He declared in favor of protection on tin, iron, glassware, and the rights of the blacks. He quoted with approval President Harrison's declaration in favor of the force bill, and incidentally mentioned Blaine. The mention of the President's name was received in silence, but the mention of Blaine drew out applause and cheers.

Rev. W. S. Vail was the last speaker, and, although the hour was late, he delivered an excellent speech that he well received. He thought it the plain duty of American citizens to see that the blacks are accorded their rights. He made the point that the blacks are not seeking an extension of rights, but are defending acquired privileges. The meeting closed by the audience singing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," with Professor Luca as leader, to the tune of "Old John Brown."

Faith Well Placed. SPOKANE FALLS, WASH., Nov. 19.—The Morning mine, near Wallace, Idaho, sixty miles from here, has been sold to a Milwaukee syndicate. The terms of sale are said to be $500,000.

The Morning mine belongs to the assets of the Spokane National bank, of this city, which failed last December with nearly $300,000 liabilities. There was only about $60,000 in sight at the time of the failure, but Cashier Hussey assured the creditors they would be paid in full. The sale to-day confirms Hussey's faith in mining securities.

Foreigners and the World's Fair. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—President W. T. Baker, of the World's Columbian Exposition, to-day had a conference with Secretary Blaine by appointment on matters connected with the displays of foreign countries at the exposition. The secretary expressed great interest on the subject.

Important Bank Stock Decision. CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 19.—Judge Hudson, at Newberry, has made an important decision in regard to the taxation of bank stock. The controller general ordered all bank stock returned at its market price instead of face value, as had hitherto been the rule. The banks all over the state resisted the change and the test case was decided yesterday in favor of the banks. A similar case will soon come up in regard to the taxation of railroads. The controller has raised the returns of the railroads in the state.

GRANT'S RESTING PLACE.

Veterans Working to Have the Great Leader's Body and Those of His Contemporaries Removed to Arlington.

New York, Nov. 19.—A special to the Tribune says: "The effort to remove the body of General Grant from Riverside to Arlington National cemetery will be renewed at the coming session of congress. Ever since the failure of the attempt in the last congress the friends of the removal have been quietly but actively and zealously at work; some of the objections then raised have been overcome, and considerable confidence is expressed that the attempt this winter will be crowned with success. That there is a strong sentiment in favor of the movement among veterans of the Union army, as among the officers of the regular army who served in the war of the rebellion, is manifest. This sentiment is founded by no sectional lines, but it is especially strong among the survivors of the western armies which Grant led to victory, and at whose head he laid the ground work of his fame and won glorious victories. But the advocates of the removal of General Grant's tomb to Arlington are not disposed to halt there; they maintain that all the great military chieftains and leaders of the Union army—Sherman, Thomas, Meade, McClellan, McPherson, Logan and all the rest, should, like Sheridan, be laid beneath the towering oaks and green sod of Arlington within view of the Capitol of the nation which they sought to save and perpetuate.

A BOGUS DISPATCH

From Europe Causes a Flurry in the Chicago Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Board of Trade men have of late been considerably exercised by frequent rumors that the Russian government intended to stop the importation of Russian wheat, and yesterday a seemingly confirmatory dispatch was received on the Board of Trade stating that the czar had actually issued a ukase prohibiting the exportation of the cereal. This dispatch was thought to have come from Charles Emory Smith, the American minister at St. Petersburg, and that gave it an appearance of reliability. The market suddenly advanced on this news and many traders, caught by the sudden rise, lost heavily.

Later it was whispered that the dispatch was bogus and the members began an investigation.

A meeting was held at which resolutions were adopted asking the directors of the Board of Trade to make a thorough investigation of the affair. It is said that Minister Smith has left St. Petersburg and is now in Philadelphia, so that he could not have sent the dispatch.

Violation of Inter-State Commerce Law.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The federal grand jury, which has been investigating the inter-state commerce violations, to-day returned indictments as follows: For obtaining a rebate less than the card tariff the following members of the firm of Swift & Co.: Gustavus H. Swift, Edwin C. Swift, Louis F. Swift and D. Edwin Harpell. For the same offense, John and George Finnerman, glucose manufacturers, of Marshalltown, Iowa. For giving rates less than the established tariff, George B. Spriggs, general freight agent of the New York, Chicago & St. Louis railway.

The Smallpox in Georgia.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Surgeon General Wyman, of the marine hospital service, received a telegram this morning from Surgeon J. H. White, who was sent to take charge of the smallpox epidemic at Harris Neck, Ga. He says:

"Local cases, 85. Deaths, 13. Convalescent, 30. Forty-two still active. Possibly more yet to be found. There is awful crowding and destitution."

Surgeon General Wyman said to-day that prompt and complete measures will be taken to stamp out the epidemic.

Fool's Fatal Fast.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Henry Stratton, one of the dozen men who forty-four days ago began a fasting contest in a Fourteenth street museum, and who outlasted all the others and was taken to Bellevue hospital on Tuesday in an exhausted condition, died at 4:55 o'clock this morning at Bellevue. Dr. Dantin, the coroner's physician, will hold an autopsy to determine the cause of his death.

It Will Cure Catarrh.

CHICAGO, ILL.

GENTLEMEN:—I commenced using your Inhaler some three months ago, and have received such decided benefit from it that I believe it will entirely cure the catarrh with which I have suffered for some years. It far exceeds anything that I have ever used, and I have tried about everything.

Respectfully yours,

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and, much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm, and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

FAMILY SUFFOCATED.

A Woman and Her Three Children are Asphyxiated.

ANDERSON, IND., Nov. 19.—An entire family was suffocated by gas at Lapella last night. Mrs. Mary Huffman and her two sons, Peter and Newton, both grown, retired for the night and left the gas burning at high pressure in the stove. Somehow the draft was imperfect and the blaze was extinguished during the night. The gas poured into the room and asphyxiated the whole family. Their condition was not discovered until a late hour in the morning, when a neighbor called and tried to get in. The doors were locked, but peering through the window, the lifeless body of Newton, the youngest, was seen lying in bed. The doors were broken open and Mrs. Huffman and the older son were taken out into the air and a physician hastily summoned. After working with them for an hour or two animation returned, but they cannot live. The younger boy was dead when discovered.

Gibson Appointed Senator.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18.—Governor Jackson, of Maryland, to-day orally tendered to ex-representative Charles H. Gibson, of this city, the appointment to be United States Senator from Maryland until the legislature fills the vacancy caused by the death of Senator E. K. Wilson. Mr. Gibson accepted the offer and his formal appointment is expected in due course.
